SASK SAILING

2025 Mobile Sailing School Instructors and Assistants

Sask Sailing is looking for instructors and assistants to help run our Summer Mobile Sailing School. Our Mobile Sailing School travels to communities and clubs across the province, introducing youth and adults to the sport of sailing. Typically, these courses are conducted using five new C420s (maximum of 10 participants) and a coach boat with all necessary equipment. Occasionally, we use Optimists and other boats. Visit our website for more information about the Mobile Sailing School.

Sask Sailing is seeking three motivated, hardworking individuals for our program.

- Head Instructor – Leads the Mobile Sailing School, oversees logistics, and manages the instructional team.
- Dinghy Instructor – Assists the Head Instructor with group management and lesson delivery.
- Assistant Instructor – Gains hands-on experience in preparation for a future instructor role.

Head Sailing Instructor for Mobile Sailing School

The Head Sailing Instructor is responsible for leading the Mobile Sailing School, overseeing all logistics, managing instructors and assistants, and ensuring a safe and engaging learning environment. This role requires strong leadership, organizational, and communication skills. Candidates must be certified as a Sail Canada Level 1-2 Instructor, possess prior coaching experience, hold a valid first aid certificate, and be comfortable towing a trailer. The position also requires the ability to camp for the duration of each program session.

Sailing Instructor for Mobile Sailing School

The Sailing Instructor will assist the Head Instructor in delivering high-quality sailing instruction and ensuring the smooth operation of the Mobile Sailing School. This role requires strong teamwork, motivation, and communication skills. Candidates must hold Sail Canada Level 1-2 Instructor certification, have a valid first aid certificate, and be comfortable driving a motorboat. The ability to travel independently and camp for the duration of each session is essential.

Assistant Instructor for Mobile Sailing School

The Assistant Instructor supports the instructional team while gaining valuable experience in preparation for becoming a certified sailing instructor. This role is ideal for a skilled sailor looking to develop teaching abilities. Candidates must have strong sailing skills, including handling a double-handed boat solo and sailing in heavy winds. The ability to travel independently and camp in remote locations is required.
